OFFICE NEWS

Office Policy:

Please ask Marcelo or Luize to enter the offices. Students should not enter the office area.

Monday, May 30th: No Classes

Monday is Memorial Day. It is a day to remember the soldiers who died for the United States. Many Americans go to the beach and have a picnic. They believe this day is the true beginning of summer.

Friday, June 3rd, Adventure Landing Trip:

After class next Friday, the ELP will car pool to Adventure Landing for an afternoon of swimming and fun. After class, eat your lunch. We will leave the ELP at 12:00 and spend the afternoon sliding and swimming.

Friday, June 10th: The 1st TOEFL test for summer semester will begin at 12:15. If you want to take the test, please go to Marcelo and pay for your seat: $30.00 cash. Only students in levels 3,4,5 may take the first TOEFL test of the summer. Students should eat lunch right after class, take a rest and then go to the testing room.

Sick????

If you feel sick, call the ELP office if you are staying home and ask Marcelo to help you make an appointment at the clinic.

Idiom of the week: Don't sweat it! - Don't worry about it.

The test is next week. Don't sweat it! Go to Adventure Landing.

Word of the week: borrow – to use someone's things and then return them
Don't borrow someone's homework and copy answers. The answers could be wrong.

Focus Club News: Read all the letters the children from Chimney Lakes Elementary wrote to us about our visit. Thanks to all of the ELP volunteers.
